

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

One Moment, One Time

When he wanted solitude, he prepared to enjoy it. I have fond, but fading memories of Maurice in solitude. His quiet presence carried the essence of joy. Exuding harmonious vibrations everywhere.

Shajara, sayaara, sound one in the same. We laughed, how we laughed. He was determined to conquer an unfamiliar tongue, and he would have. But there was more than just physical distance between us.

I regret losing touch with your beautiful soul. I regret the absence of my prayers.
And your not knowing how the aroma of spiced
apples, takes me back to your smile.

Your Aunt Sheilah

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF MAURICE TRAVON KILPATRICK

Mr. Maurice Travon Kilpatrick was born July 25, 2000 in Cleveland, Ohio. Maurice was a beautiful human being, gentle, caring, kind hearted, a peace seeker who's spirit shines bright. Maurice was accepting of all; he believed we should not judge one another because you don't know what a person is going through.

Maurice graduated from Martin Luther King High School in 2019. He enjoyed walking and taking photographs in his leisure time. Like many other young adults, he was still figuring out his own path.

Maurice was extremely family oriented and a loyal friend. He loved being in the presence of his loved ones. He made it a point to visit and stay in touch with the family members daily. His strongest bond was with his sister Dayla; whom he shared everything with even birthdays. He was protective of his little sister Malia which he endearingly called "Strong Girl". He would watch over her and whenever he came home; the first place he would go was her room to make sure she was safe in bed. His niece Brionna had a special place in his heart; he always made a point to play with her. The devoted uncle would travel back and forth from Cleveland to Columbus to spend quality time with her.

Maurice is survived by his beloved parents, Maria Garcia & Brian Pugh, siblings, Demetrius, Chiquia, Malkeyo Jr, Dayla and Malia, grandfather Carlos and grandmother Loretta (deceased), along with a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

He will truly be missed by all that loved him.
