

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever

Your Smile

Tracy Rodgers was born April 8, 1968, in Cleveland, Ohio to the union of Eddie L. Rodgers and Ida M. (Perkins) Rodgers both deceased.

Tracy attended Cleveland Public Schools and graduated from Lincoln West High School in 1986. After high school the main job that she held was that of a daycare worker because she loved children.

Tracy never married but had special friends. Tracy gave birth to a baby boy Michael Allen Cole Jr in 2005 who was born still. Tracy Loved a good meal. Her love for baking allowed many of us to enjoy her pound cakes, cheesecakes and cookies.

Tracy Departed this life November 7, 2022, after years of battling several illnesses.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sisters Tonja Rodgers, Tamiko Rodgers, Rosalyn Easley (Paul), Edweena Rodgers, Also Santina Perryman, Colleen White, brother Eddie Moseley, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Eddie L. White and Vincent Feggins preceded her in death.

Though your smile is gone,
And your hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories,
Of the ones we loved so much.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part,
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts.

Sister and Best Friend

The moment I realized,
my sister just died.
My hands cradled my face,
and I frantically cried.
Why did this happen,
and how could this be.
She had so much to live for,
we could all clearly see.
My heart simply dropped,
and felt a sharp pain.
My tears fell instantly,
Like a severe August rain.
I was truly lucky,
to have a sister like her.
Countless others,
nod and concur.
I will miss our talks,
and her comforting voice.
And those random moments,
where we'd mutually rejoice.
Rest in peace,
Sister and best friend,
My deepest love,
to the sky I shall send.
