

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be So,
He put His arms around you and whispered, "
Come to me" With tearful eyes we watched you,
as you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly,

we couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating,
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Your Sister Antwanette

Obituary

Maxine Tennison was born on March 20 1951 at Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas Texas to the parentage of Ms. Percy M. Thompson and Mr. Hosie Montgomery. She attended and graduated from Roosevelt High School in May 1969.

Maxine confessed her belief in Christ at an early age and was faithful in her Christian beliefs, until the Lord called her home.

She was preceded in death by her daughter; Brenda, grandson; Thomas Tennison, nephews; David and Larry Montgomery, brothers; Hosie Jr., Horrace and Kevin, and sister; Lucille Montgomery.

She leaves to cherish her memories two daughters; Linda Tennison (Cornel), and Deborah T. Black (Jimmy), two sisters; Johnnie Mae and Alberta Montgomery, her sister-in-laws; Delta and Kathy Montgomery; nephews; Kendrick (Ketha), Sammie (Tabitha), and Montgomery, nieces; Angel, Alicia, and Anitial, grandkids, Rosa, Melinda, and Alfredo (Gabriel), several great-grandkids, and a plethora of other relatives and friends. Maxine will be deeply missed and continued to be loved by all who knew her.
