Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Family Poems

A Limb Has Fallen . . . A limb has fallen from the family tree, I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me". Remember the best times, the laughter, the song, The good life lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, now I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't just stare at the wall. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin, Until the day comes we're together again...

Your Loving Wife

Precious...

Two smiling eyes stopped smiling, A golden heart stood still, We don't know why God took you, And guess we never will. He only lent you to us, Then came and took you back, To us you were so precious, Your life was full of fun, our caring, loving Father has gone home.

Your Loving Daughters

Daddy It's hard to forget someone who gave you so much to remember. It was my honor to take care of you... Until we meet again...

Your loving daughter, San

Obituary

Jimmie Rogers Hall, affectionately known as Jim, passed away peacefully on April 16, 2023, in Dallas, Texas, at the age of 79.

Jim was born on August 29, 1943, in Malakoff, Texas, where he spent his early childhood spreading kindness, laughter, and joy to all those around him.

He grew up in Malakoff (Henderson County), TX and completed his formal education in hometown public schools. Jim later relocated to Dallas, Texas where he started his family.

Jim began his career at Goodman Supply, where he worked diligently for many years, earning the respect and admiration of his colleagues. Later, he transitioned to driving trucks, where he continued to demonstrate his strong work ethic and commitment to providing for his family.

Upon retiring from truck driving, Jim pursued his entrepreneurial spirit by owning and managing the Past Time Club. The club became a beloved gathering place for friends and family, where Jim's warm personality, humor, and generosity were always on full display.

A true people person, Jim enjoyed spending hours talking on the phone, catching up with friends and family, and sharing stories that brought laughter and happiness to all who had the pleasure of speaking with him. His genuine interest in the lives of others, combined with his quick wit and sense of humor, made conversations with Jim something to be cherished.

In addition to his love for socializing, Jim was an avid sports enthusiast. He took great pleasure in watching various sports, discussing the latest games and players, and sharing his passion with others. His enthusiasm for sports was contagious, and he could often be found surrounded by friends and family, engaged in lively discussions about their favorite teams and athletes.

Jim was a man who will be remembered for his friendly nature, his kind heart, and his ability to make others laugh. His warm presence and infectious humor brought joy to countless people throughout his life, and his memory will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his parents; James Richardson and Lois Reed, and brother; Otha Lee Richardson.

He leaves to cherish precious memories his wife; Earnestine Hall, seven daughters; Katherine Bryant (Dewayne), Sandra Stubblefield (Tony), Linda Bibbes, Dolores Lacy (Roderick), Charlotte Wallace (Beauford), Letha Hall and Brenda Hall, four sons; Steve Harris, Fredrick Hall (Nicolett), Trent Hall (Tammi), Larry Hall (Robin), his siblings; James Richardson (Sharon), Dell Roy Richardson (Janette), Mike Richardson, Janice Turner, and a special friend; Lori Harvey. He also leaves a plethora grand children, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives & friends.

Jimmie Rogers 'Jim' Hall, leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and kindness that will be cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His memory will live on in the hearts and minds of his family, friends, and community. He certainly will be dearly missed.
