She is Not Gone

Ease your grief, she is not gone,
For in your heart, she lingers on.
Her smile, her laugh, her special way,
Will comfort you from day to day.

You'll feel her presence in the breeze,
That dances gently, through the trees,
And it's her face that you will see,
When you're in need of company.

God has her in his Heavenly keeping,
We have her in our heart,
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part.

At any time, you can recall,
The love you shared, she cared deeply for you all.

And in time, more than anything,
You'll find peace in remembering.

Forever In Our Hearts,
Children and Grandchildren

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away,
her journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets,
this earth is only one,
Just think of her as resting, from the sorrows and the tears,
In a place of warmth and comfort, where there are no days or years,
Think how she must be wishing,
that we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness,
can really pass away,
And think of her as living, in the hearts of those she touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost,
and she was loved so much.

Mrs. Rebecca Randolph Finch, affectionately known as "Beck, and Grandma Beck" was born in Richland County, South Carolina on May 17, 1932.

She was the oldest child of the late Mr. Roosevelt (Rosa Bell) Carter Sr. She departed this earthly life to enter into eternal rest on Friday, April 29, 2022.

Rebecca was baptized at an early age and joined Zion Benevolent Baptist Church. She attended public schools in Richland County, South Carolina.

Rebecca was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Jim Randolph Sr. for Twenty-One (21) years. They were blessed to have two sons and seven daughters. Years after Jim Randolph Sr.'s unfortunate death, Rebecca remarried to the late Ben Finch.

Rebecca worked for the South Carolina Department of Mental Health, in Food Services and at Fort Jackson, in Laundry Services. After working for several years, she retired and enjoyed the opportunity of rising her children. She loved listening to Gospel music and praising the Lord.

She was caring, loving, smart and beautiful. She had a heart of gold, and generous to all. Her sense of humor and laughter will be greatly missed. Her smile could light up any room. Her spirit was joyful and vibrant.
