RJS WAY

Hey Mom...Wipe your tears with my hugs and try not to cry.

I'm much better now, sitting next to God on high. I know you're going to miss me but think of me every time the sun shines bright and let my one-of-a-kind smile illuminate your darkest nights Hey Dad...You know I'm too cool just like you. After all, remember I'm named after you, I'm Rodney too. In moments when you're alone and you can't see how to go on, remember how you always inspired me...your only son.

Pa-Pa, Gma, Nana, & Auntie...your foundation in Christ kept me in the church understanding now more than ever the power of prayer and that prayer works. You'll see me again when we're seated at the Father's feet.

You created this legacy and I'm proud to be Jimmy Lee. Kandi...I'm still your fake baby, nothing will ever change that. Keep my Mom close forever and I'll do the same with Grandma Vera.

Amarie & TJ...remember it's AJ + RJ + TJ for life and even in the afterlife. We were cousins by relation but siblings by love, I won't say it will get easier, but when your heart is heavy remember your brother by love is smiling on all of you from above. No PS5 or Xbox can predict this game of life.

My Ohio & Beaufort families - Live, love and laugh often. Remember to travel, take a country ride down a country road and marvel at God's creation as I did so often just spend time with all of you.

To All of Rodney's extended family & friends who came from near & far, he had a special relationship with each of you. Hold him near your hearts. Cherish his legacy, and when you power up that game console, celebrate his life. Never stop talking about him. Please continue to lift his parents up. Always say his name for it'll never be too much.

Fly High Above the Sky RJ! WE LOVE YOU!

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

It is with deep sorrow and much love that we mourn the passing of our beloved, Rodney Jimmy Lee Anderson, who left us unexpectedly on the 11th day of October. "RJ," as he was affectionately known, was born on the seventh day of July of two-thousand and two in Manning, SC; a beautiful, bouncing baby boy who filled our lives with his gentle and quiet love. RJ is gone too soon, but will be remembered for his kind heart, humor, and love for his family and friends.

He leaves a long-lasting imprint which spans from SC to OH. He completed his elementary, middle, and some high school in Orangeburg, SC. At the maturing age of 15, he moved to Dayton, OH and later graduated from Centerville High School in Centerville, OH. At the time of his transition, he was enrolled at the University of Cincinnati majoring in Physical Therapy. He was a member of True Vine Temple in Orangeburg, SC and The Vineyard Church in Cincinnati, OH.

He was preceded in death by: his maternal grandmother, Vera L. White Patterson; great-grandparents, Freddie S. and Lula Bell White; his paternal grandparents, Edward and Carolyn Anderson; and uncle, Wesley Anderson.

Cherished memories are left with his: mother, Romaine (Leroy) Stephens, of Orangeburg, SC; father, Rodney M. Anderson, of Dayton, OH; maternal grandparents, Jimmy Lee and Barbara Patterson, of Orangeburg, SC; "Nana", Michelle B. (Jeffery) White Gardner, of Beaufort, SC; maternal aunt, Christy K.(Brandon Gregg) Patterson, of Orangeburg, SC; paternal aunts, Veronica (Marty) McMichael, of Dayton, OH and Vanessa Anderson, of Santee, SC; maternal grand-aunt, Joan Shelia White Green, of Beaufort, SC; grand-uncles, Calvin (Cynthia) White, of Beaufort, SC; Roosevelt (Mildred) Patterson and Heyward (Sylvia) Patterson, both of Eastover, SC; paternal grand-uncle, Isaac (Helen) Wright, of Santee, SC; grand-aunts, Louise Smalls and Ida Scott, both of Vance, SC; Sterling(Erika)Langley, Shawn(Monica) Langley, Aaron (Kenitria) Langley, and Tonya Langley; his loving godparents, special cousins, Amarie, Marty, TJ, and Victor; and a host of other relatives and friends.

His passing leaves a gaping hole in our lives and a tremendous void in each of our hearts. While we know life will never be the same without him, we know our hearts will forever encapsulate our love for our "RJim."

RJ, the light you've shined on this Earth can never be dimmed, but we know it shines brighter with the Father. Your smile was as genuine as your spirit. The joy you've given us for 19 years will be the solace we rely on to help us through the coming days, weeks, months, and years without you. RJ...you got us with this one! But, we know God will get us through it...SOME HOW...SOME WAY..ONE DAY.

We will always...always love - RODNEY JIMMY LEE!
