PASTOR AUBREY BROWN, OFFICIATING

Death beckoned her with outstretched hand and whispered softly of an unknown land, but she was not afraid to go, for though the path she did not know. She took death's hand without fear, for He who safely brought her here, had told her He would lead the way, into eternity's bright day. And so she did not go alone, into the valley that's unknown. She gently took death by the hand and journeyed to the promised land. And there, with step so light and gay she polishes the sun by day and lights the stars, that shine at night and keeps the moonbeams silvery bright. For Mothers really never die, they just keep house up in the sky. And in the heavenly home above, they wait to welcome those they love.
