

To Those I Love and To Those Who Love Me

When I am gone release me; let me go.

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love – you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown.

But not it is time I traveled on alone.

So, grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,

So bless the memories with your heart.

It won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me, call. I will come.

Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near;

And if you listen with your heart you will hear

All of my love around you, soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and wave

"Welcome Home."

Life's Reflections

Mrs. Anita Lee Raimondi Oliver was born May 30, 1946, in Compton, California to the late Joe Di Raimondi and Bonnie Merritt Raimondi. She departed this life for eternal rest on Wednesday, August 31, 2022, at the Regional Medical Center, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

She graduated from Paramount High School and attended Compton Junior College in Compton, California. Anita was employed at the United States Naval Base in Long Beach, California. Upon moving to South Carolina, she worked at Greenville Memorial hospital in Greenville, South Carolina.

Anita accepted Christ early in her life and upon transitioning to Orangeburg, South Carolina; she was affiliated with North Orangeburg United Methodist Church in Orangeburg County. She faithfully attended Faith Love and Restoration Outreach, Cope, South Carolina, for several years.

To cherish many memories are: her daughter, Ruth Kimberly Oliver, of Columbia, South Carolina; six beautiful grandchildren, Shyheshia Oliver, Brunson Oliver, Fatire Barnes, Tanyeah Barnes, Kimeisha Oliver, and Matthew Oliver; a special friend/caregiver, Reverend Barbara B. Mavins; and several other relatives and friends
