To My Brother

You were strong and you held on to the last minute. God saw your Struggle and strength and said it was time to go. Doctors said you were leaving but you held on until God said so. I am going to miss you, my brother.

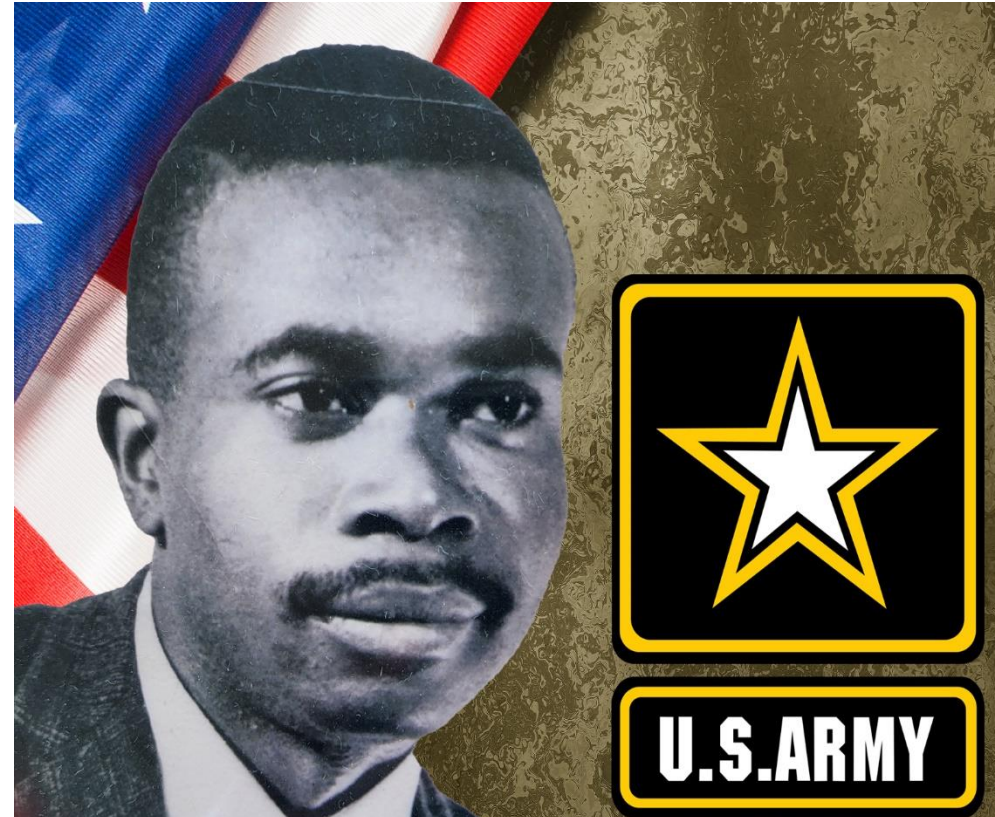

With Love,

Obituary

Private First-Class Obril Collier was born on June 30, 1944, in Orangeburg, SC. He was the son of Cornelius “Jack” Collier and Lilier Mae Berry Collier. He departed this on February 20, 2023.

He was educated in the schools of Orangeburg County, SC. After school, he enlisted in the United States Army. He was in the Vietnam War. He attended the University of New York. Prior to his death, he was employed as a security guard in New York. He attended the Pace Center.

He relocated to Orangeburg, SC to be closer to his mother and other relatives. He enjoyed listening to old school music, especially James Brown. In his later years, he enjoyed watching the news and westerns. He will be missed for his sense of humor.

He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Elizabeth “Gracie” Collier, and Estelle Collier; and two brothers, Cornelius “JC” Collier, Jr., and Joseph “Sank” Collier.

His leaves to cherish precious memories with: Pastor Lorene Caulley, Lillie Collier (Joseph) Brown, Carolyn Collier-Greene (Pastor Isaac); reared in home, Melvin Collier, and Letitia Collier Martino; along with a host of other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
