Reflections of a Life Well Lived

Mr. Albert Eugene Chesney, age 88, transitioned into eternal rest on Wednesday, May 19, 2021, at his residence.

Albert Eugene "Meat" Chesney 88, was born March 7, 1933, to the late Julian and Connie Chesney. He departed this life on May 19, 2021.

Albert was an easy-going, very lovable, and funny person, although everyone didn't know about the funny side of him. He met Sarah Snipes early in life and they got married in 1995. He was a giving man who always was willing to help family members in need. He loved his family and the family members always teased and picked with him when visiting. Albert was always a hard-working man until his health started failing him.

For many years he worked at sawmills and later began working for himself in the pulpwood industry. He loved fishing and playing cards. He will surely be missed by all that knew him.

Albert was preceded in death by his parents, Julian and Connie Chesney, two sons, Steve and John Chesney, three sisters, Ernestine Chesney, Emma Melver, and Shirley Chesney. Four brothers, Robert, Julian, Garrett, Henry Lee Chesney. Albert helped raise many other children who are now deceased, Billie McSwain, Nancy Baldwin, Elion Evans, Roland Melver, George Melver, Billy Richmond, and Octavia Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Sarah Chesney; two sons, Jimmie Melver (Sheron), and Larry Chesney; two daughters, Belinda Tuck and Deborah Newby; daughter-in-law Kathleen Melver; a brother, Jerry Chesney (Stella), and a sister, Leola Worthy. Also, a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

The Life of George Melver

Mr. George Otis Melver, age 65, transitioned into eternal rest on Tuesday, May 18, 2021, at his residence.

George Otis "Dink" Melver was born on November 13, 1955. He departed this life on May 18, 2021. George was a unique person. He was the kind of individual that once you met him, you wouldn't forget him. George loved sports. He was a diehard Yankees and Cowboys fan. He was a very good baseball player in high school and early adulthood. George also liked his fast, pretty cars. He was very outgoing and loved fishing and attending family functions. George never seemed to meet a stranger. He would strike up a conversation with any and everyone he came in contact with. Although George could be a little rough around the edges at times, he was a loving person. He talked about his family all the time. If anyone really knew George, they can tell you that he has always been true to himself. He's been "Dink" all his life and if he was here today, he would remind you that "I'm still Dink". His passing will leave a void in a lot of peoples' memories.

George worked in manufacturing for many years before going to work in the logging industry. He liked working outside in the open. He always had plenty of conversation about his job and the different machines he worked with. When his health started failing him, he often spoke of how he wished he was still able to work.

George was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Aiyonna, and great-granddaughter, A'Lai; brothers, Steve, John, Roland, and Billie; sisters, Ruthie Mae, Nancy, and Elion.

George leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Sarah Chesney; a son, Christopher Barrett Sr. (Crystal); brothers, Jimmie Melver (Sheron) and Larry Chesney; sisters, Belinda Tuck and Deborah Newby; a granddaughter, Faith; two grandsons, Chris Jr., and Ari; an uncle, Haywood Snipes (Barbara) and an aunt, Ruby Battle (Howard) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
