Miss Me...But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free,
Miss Me a little...but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the Love we once shared.
Miss Me...But Let Me Go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
And a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to the friends we know;
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss Me...But Let Me Go.

Ms. Primrose Estelle Sutton, was born October 20, 1948 to the late Lalur Edwards and Oscar Edwards. On June 11, 2021, our Heavenly Father Called Her Home.

She attended Chatham County Public Schools, after graduating from High School in 1967 she attended business school in the triangle area. Upon graduation from business school, she moved to Washington, DC where she did clerical work for Federal Government.

In 1971 met David Sutton and married in 1972; to that union was born one son Richard Anthony Sutton.

In 1974 she returned to Goldston, NC to reside. Estelle worked various jobs, but the one that she loved the most was working with Knotts Funeral Home in Sanford and Siler City, NC.

Although she joined Roberts Chapel at an early age, when returning to North Carolina she rededicated herself to the ministry and served in various capacities. Some acts of service included: Church Clerk, different positions in Missionary Circle, Secretary of Sunday School, Usher, choir member, Chair of Benevolent and Condolence Committee, assisted in delivering food to church and community members, and assisted with voting for political candidates.

Estelle was active member of the Morning Star Chapter #594, Order of Eastern Star -Prince Hall Affiliate. She received many awards The Highest Secretary Award from the North Carolina Grand Chapter of Eastern Star for outstanding performance. She served in many positions for Morning Star Chapter #594, Goldston, NC.

Estelle was preceded in death by two sisters, Louis McIntosh, Landora Pearce, and one brother, Burly Rives.

She leaves to cherish her memories her son Richard Sutton (Tamkai) Durham, NC; six grandchildren, Keshanna "KJ" Williams Sanford, NC, Anaiya Sutton, Tonita Webster (Dakota), Clarissa Trice, Fredrick Trice, and Tyrese Peaks; six great-grand children all from Durham NC; two sisters, Rosella Frazier Greensboro NC, and Christine Blake Reaves Mt. Laurel NJ and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
