

A Poem in Honor of Our Mom

Mom we love you and you will be missed,
Do us a favor, please give grandma a kiss.
You have touched so many people in so many ways,
Your Sunday meals lasted for days.
Mom wore many, many hats daily,
she was a mother, a sister, a grandma
and to many, Aunt Dot.
Mom was also the family nurse,
the family cook and on any given Sunday
you knew she had something in the pot.
Mom was a rare woman and that is hard to find,
she would love you and care for you
and quickly tell you what is on her mind.
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace as we remember
the things you loved best.
