

My Wife, My Queen

Thank you, Lord, for what you shared with me. You sent me a friend, a lover, a teacher, and a helpmate. You placed someone in my life to better my life. You placed someone in my life to better my life. You gave me Marlene to be my wife. The spirit of the woman that you shared with me is what made her my wife and my queen.

Thank You Lord,
Anthony McIntyre

Obituary

Marlene Evadney Corbin McIntyre was born February 7, 1964, in Barbados to her earthly parents Eustace and Cerlene Corbin. On January 18, 2022, Marlene answered the Master's call and reunited with her heavenly Father.

Marlene came to the United States in 1989. She received her education from Deacon's Primary School and Parkinson's Secondary School in Barbados. She worked at Lisner Home in Washington DC for 19 years before moving to North Carolina.

Marlene married Anthony McIntyre in December 2016, and they both attended Mt. Nebo FWB, in Lemon Springs under the leadership of Pastor Jamlain Johnson. Marlene was God's representation of Ruth from the Old Testament. She was fun loving, strong willed, family oriented, loyal and faithful, steadfast in the Lord, and an awesome helpmate to her husband.

Marlene is preceded in death by her parents, Eustace and Cerlene Corbin.

She leaves to cherish her memories and legacy her loving husband of five years, Anthony McIntyre of the home; her son, Marquise Smith Corbin of Sanford, NC; her siblings, William Norville and family of Somerset NJ; Florence Norville and family, Marselles Seally and family, Wingay Corbin, Nolan Corbin, Phillip Corbin and family, and Kimberly Corbin and family all of Barbados.
