Obituary

Brayden Quay-Shon arrived to the world on November 21, 2002, in Sheffield, Alabama, at Helen Keller Hospital. Brayden departed this world and began his journey with God on Saturday, April 23, 2022.

Brayden graduated from Calera High School in Calera, Alabama, in May of 2021. He then attended Jefferson State Community College to pursue a degree in nursing while also pursuing his football career with the Jefferson Post-Graduate Hawks in Birmingham, Alabama.

Brayden was preceded in death by his great-grandmothers, Ollie Mae Johnson and George Ella Harden; grandfather, Jerry Neal Hall; and uncle, DeNeal Johnson.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Octavia Bailey of Alabaster, Alabama, and Brad Harden of Birmingham, Alabama; brother, Braxton “BJ” Harden of Alabaster, Alabama; two sisters, Branisha Hogans of Leighton, Alabama, and Jamarea Harris of Alabaster, Alabama; grandmothers, Carolyn Harden of Leighton, Alabama, and Gloria Webster of Tuscumbia, Alabama; grandpa, Charles Bailey of Muscle Shoals, Alabama; aunts, Shivoris Hicks of Leighton, Alabama, and Deanna Bailey of Florence, Alabama; uncles, Dylan Bailey and Carlos Long, both of Decatur, Alabama, Nicklaus Harden of Leighton, Alabama, and Marcus Hall, Justin Hall, and Fredrick Bailey, all of Muscle Shoals, Alabama; and a host of cousins, friends, great-aunts, great-uncles and a unborn nephew.

Brayden,

I keep telling myself I will not give up. I cant stop. You wouldn't want me to. But how do I began to live a life without a part of my reasons why I get up and go every day? I never thought I would have to live a life without you and that crooked smirk. I thought God heard my selfish prayers; no more joke, wet kisses, or debates. I don't want to give you back. I took time for granted because I thought I had forever with you. Time is a thief. Thank you for choosing me to be your mother. Thank you for loving me unconditionally. I thought I failed you as a mother, but the stories and the tears shed for you have shown me that you were loved by so many. You spread your joy to more than just me. My firstborn son, I love you, more than words. I am heartbroken. You will forever live on through me. I know you will watch over us.

Love you,

Mom
