OBITUARY

Reverend Parvin J. Neloms was born on June 14, 1946, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Percy Neloms, Sr., of Leighton, Alabama. He departed his life on May 23, 2022, at the North Alabama Medical Center in Florence, Alabama.

He attained his early education at Leighton Training School in Leighton, Alabama. He was a member of the class of 1967. He also attended Birmingham Baptist College in Birmingham, Alabama.

He accepted Christ at an early age and joined Cave Spring Missionary Baptist Church, where he served as a deacon and a member of the male choir.

In 1984, he acknowledged his calling to preach the Word of God. That same year he joined St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church of Tishomingo, Mississippi, where he pastored for three years. After three years, the Lord sent him to pastor the Eleventh Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Florence, Alabama for twenty-one years.

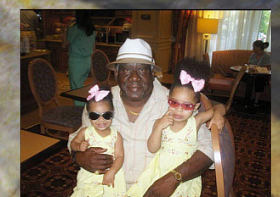

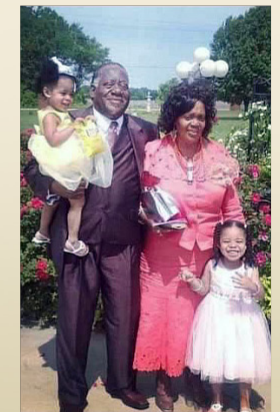

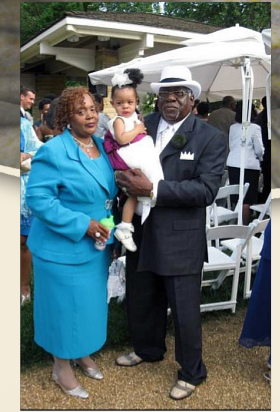

After twenty-one years of faithful service, the Lord led Pastor Parvin J. Neloms to establish the Bible Way Missionary Baptist Church in Florence, Alabama. There he served with all faithfulness, humility, and greatness of leadership until the Lord called him to rest on May 23, 2022. His legacy will stand as a testimony for succeeding pastors to build upon Bible-based beliefs that souls might be saved.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Percy Neloms, Sr., and Nannie Mae Hayes Neloms; his siblings, Arthur Curtis Neloms, Leroy Haney, Pastor Otis C. Neloms, Lillie Pearl Ray, and Percy L. Neloms; and grandparents, Arthur and Susie Neloms, and Harry and Lucinda Hayes.

Reverend Parvin James Neloms leaves to cherish his memories: his faithful, loving, and devoted wife of 54-years, Linda Sue Harden Neloms; two sons, Parvin J. Neloms, Jr., of Tusculumbia, Alabama and Stevon D. (Moneique) Neloms of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; grandchildren, Merisit, Sani, and Gaius; two brothers, Harry O. Neloms (Janice) of Leighton, Alabama and Lloyd Hampton (Jacqueline) of Brandywine, Maryland; two sisters, Queenie S. Cole of Leighton, Alabama and Doris Robinson of Marietta, Georgia; sisters-in-law, Annie M. Neloms of Leighton, Alabama, Verlina King of Louisville, Kentucky, Christine Robinson of Muscle Shoals, Alabama, Inez Hampton Jones of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Yvonne Young (Trome) of Leighton, Alabama, Laven Coffey of Ooltewah, Tennessee, and Amy Neloms of Muscle Shoals, Alabama; brothers-in-law, Cliff Madden of Town Creek, Alabama, Charles Harden of Louisville, Kentucky, and Jerry King of Louisville, Kentucky; a special brother-in-law who was like a son, Randy Harden of Leighton, Alabama; uncle, Harry Hayes, Jr.; aunt, Gertrude Johnson; a special niece, Pat Cole (thanks for all the beautiful suits!); and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Special Thanks To: Dr. Wayne Stanley & Staff, Tameka Stewart—Nurse, Barry Phillips (Employer of 42 years) and Bible Way Missionary Baptist Church.

Invictus

*Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.*

*In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.*

*Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.*

*It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul.*

by William Ernest Henley

Tributes

*Our granddaddy always made us feel loved and spoiled us.
He was one of our biggest supporters when we play sports.
He always kept us laughing and loved spending time with us.
He made the best breakfast. We miss him so much.
Merisit, Sani, and Gaius*

*I don't think I can express how great of a man my father-in-law was or how big of a void my family will have without him.
I feel blessed that my babies had the time they had with him and blessed to have had him a part of my life.
He loved us and shaped us, and his impact on my life was life changing.
I will always carry him with me throughout my life.
Love you always, Daddy Neloms.
Moneique*

*My backbone, my everything. There is no me without you, daddy.
The conversations and advice you gave will still resonate with me all my life.
The calls during my lowest moments, how you would give advice that would make everything ok is what I will miss. You just knew the right things to say. You always told me you loved me, wanted me to look you in the eyes when you told me. You kept saying how proud you were of me. The kisses on the forehead never got old. What I wouldn't give for another kiss on the forehead. I'll miss you, daddy, and love you forever. I hope I continue to make you proud and be half of the father you were to me to my three kids.
