A Special Edition

A calendar year printed on pretty paper,
The amount of time from the first day 'til last;
An annual chart showing days, weeks and months,
Day by day, week by week, the year comes to pass.

Each year a new calendar is printed,
The same information contained.
The appearance may be quite different,
Excluding leap year, the days remain the same.

Calendars come in many sizes
And can be purchased at many stores;
A timetable of dates and events
Can be found hanging on many doors.

But this calendar is unlike any other,
Different from the ones you will find;
It's not bought or sold anywhere,
For this calendar is one of a kind!

It will remind us of holidays and memories,
Personal pictures are included here;
As are those swiftly passing birthdays,
All the joys, happiness and family cheer.

Great love went into its creation,
Making this gift exceptional and unique,
For it's a special edition of a family calendar,
Preserving one family's life to cherish and to keep.
