

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in Heaven,
Lord, then pick a bunch for me.
Then place them in my mother's arms,
and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her
and when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek,
and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day.
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

Grandmother

God looked around his garden
And found an empty space
Then he looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful;
He only takes the best.

Obituary

Grace Warney, daughter of the late Elner Cook Warney and Edward Warney, was born on December 12, 1957, in Bennettsville, South Carolina. She departed this life on December 11, 2021, at McLeod Health in Cheraw, South Carolina surrounded by family.

In addition to her parents, Grace was preceded in death by her grandparents, whom she was reared by, Delphine Hupburn Cook and John Henry Cook; her brother, John Otis Warney; and sister, Eleanor Hamilton.

Grace was educated in the public schools of Marlboro County, graduating from Blenheim High School in the Class of 1975. She was employed at United Technologies for fourteen years and Marley Engineered Products for twenty-five years.

Left to cherish her memories are her loving daughter, Tamiko Warney of the home; her grandson, Alex Stroman of the home; three sisters, Ella Mae Warney of Schenectady, New York, Marilyn Warney of Staten Island, New York, and Elaine (Ronnie) Purvis of Bennettsville, South Carolina; three aunts, Isabella Williams, and Idella Peterkin, both of New York, and Carrie Peterkin of Bennettsville, South Carolina; nine nieces; four nephews; twenty-three great-nieces and nephews; two godchildren, whom she loved dearly, Makenzie Brand of Indian Trail, North Carolina, and Hakeem Brown of Bennettsville, South Carolina; very special friends, Nan Fleming, Charlene Kelly, Lillie McLaurin, Terra Hepburn Graham, Kimberly Munnerlyn Ferguson, and Christine Williams; bonus family member, Quincy of Florida; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
