

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid you see.
 I took his hand when I heard him call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found that peace at the close of day
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
 If my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
 Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Leo Jones, mostly known as “Big Red” was born in Bennettsville South Carolina on January 18, 1939, to the late Curby and Bessie Lyles Jones. He was a hard-working man. He loved his family. He also loved to garden and plant and ride around on his tractor. He transitioned to his heavenly reward April 3, 2022, in the comforts of his own home and surrounded by his loved ones. Although he is not with us in the flesh, he is with is in the spirit.

He was educated in the public schools of Marlboro County and lived his entire life there.

He was united in holy matrimony to Irene Pate July 9, 1964, in Bennettsville SC. He worked for East Coast Truck lines as a truck driver for 35+ years.

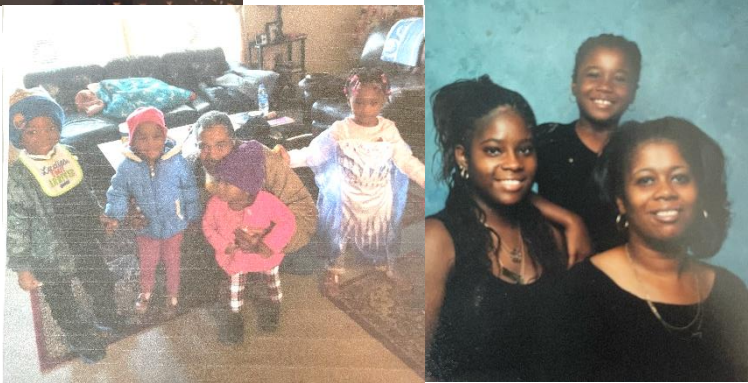

He accepted Christ as his personal savior, where he attended and was a member of Old Galilee United Methodist Church.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his sister Evelyn Covington and his brother George Jones of Bennettsville SC.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories: his loving wife Irene Jones, children: three loving sons Terry Jones, Donald Jones and Ronald Jones all of Bennettsville SC, five grandchildren Gwen Brown (Bricken), Parris Jamison (Brandon), McKenzie Sellers all of Summerville SC, Seth Jones of Pageland SC and Alysia Jones of Bennettsville SC; six great grandchildren: Kennedy, Hayden, Brazil, Brandie, Brooklyn, and Harlym of Summerville SC. one loving sister Annie Redmond of Denver, Colorado; two loving brothers Curby Jr (Mae Frances) and Freddy; and his only girl Sabrina Sellers (Greg) of Summerville SC; A host of special nieces and nephews and lots of other devoted friends and family.

The family would also like to thank Liz and Stacy with McCleod Hospice for all of their dedication and help during this time.

Leo was a loving man, devoted to his family and he will be greatly missed by us all.
