

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning , noon & night!

Obituary

Mrs. Rebecca B. Brown was born on November 24, 1921, in Marlboro County, South Carolina to the late Alford and Cynthia Brown. She entered eternal rest on October 12, 2022, at Dundee Manor in Bennettsville, SC

Beck, as she was affectionally called, attended Marlboro County Public Schools. She was employed as a housekeeper for 60 years.

Beck chose Christ as her personal Savior at the age of 12. She joined Sandy Grove Missionary Baptist Church and later became a member of the choir. She was a faithful member until her health began to fail.

Beck was married to the late Lawrence Brown. From that union four children were conceived: Elizabeth Chapman, Janice Brown, Alfred Brown, and Chambers Brown. All of whom preceded her in death. She also had two brothers and three sisters: Alene Johnson, Mary Benjamin, Liza Brown, Alfred Brown, and Willie Brown, that preceded her in death.

Left to cherish her memories are one sister, Alberta Purcell of Bennettsville, SC; one sister-in-law, Mary Ann Brown of Fayetteville, NC; many grandchildren of New Jersey and New York: Anthony Walls, Sheila Brown, Chambers Brown, Jr., Dwayne Brown, Theise Chapman, (Pete) David Chapman, Rebecca Chapman, and Alfred Brown, Jr.; a host of nieces and nephews; two special cousins Sarah Page and Sarah Watson; two special friends Maggie Manning and Lisa Smith.
