

A Flower in Its Season

by Akei Aya

When the appointed season arrived there was rich soil to be tilled. Then a special seed was planted with love from above that began the Creator's will.

In the early years, the leaves marked the growth of flower throughout his journey especially with service to his country.

Finally came the time when the flower opened up wide. He soon desired to seek out a mate. What fate! For literally, right up the road for years, stood a humble abode with a sweet Tender Twig he'd know all his young life!

Now on the foundation of two, began a new, when the two ribbed flowers entwined. As the next step came about with, joy & a shout, proclaimed their sprout out: the blessing of Namon Jr., their 1st born son!

Over the years with joy & tears and sometimes ups & downs the garden still thrived; and beautifully came alive with colors of such renown! For the garden took shape it went deeper with more roots: soon shoots of four more seeds sprouted up. There was the blessing of James, their 2nd born son. Soon ushered in were three tender twigs that brightened the FLOWERS, as the sun. There was Charlotte (the eldest) & Linda (snuggled in the middle), then Lisa, the youngest in the garden.

As the 7 flowers grew together it made the garden complete! Yes, the Flowers have grown & matured; and in reality of life there has been much they endured. Yes, many years have passed on & that seed that was first planted, so long ago, has surely held its own.

Now it comes to no surprise that a flowers petals must soon fall! The color will fade, the stem will bend, but it must answer the call.

Rejoice! This Flower that we speak of has stood the test of time! He leaves a long, strong legacy of (?) generations of Flowered Fruit to hold tight to that vine!!!

Since flowers are here only for a season, you could ask, "Where have all the Flowers gone?" The answer is to listen quietly as the wind sings their song!

Rejoice! Rejoice! Over the blessed life of Namon Flowers: a Son, Husband, Father & Friend!

We love you!

Obituary

A Humble easy-going, loving, man of God is an awesome description of Bro. Namon Flowers, Sr. He is also known for his melodious spiritual singing. He was born September 21, 1933 in Daleville, Alabama to Sammie Lee and Snowdie Mae Flowers. He attended Pinckard High School.

In 1953, Bro. Namon enlisted into the Army Branch of the United States Military, where he received three medals of honor including The National Defense Service Medal, United Nations Service Medal. and The Korean Service Medal.

Bro. Namon was an avid lover of Gospel music. He began his singing career at an early age and continued with various quartets. Bro. Namon and his brother, Sandy Flowers, and cousins formed the gospel singing group “The Spiritual Harmonizers” of Trenton, New Jersey.

Bro. Namon became a faithful and dedicated member of El Bethel Baptist Church of Trenton, New Jersey where he sang with the Mass Choir, Senior Choir and Male Chorus.

Bro. Namon was employed by Trenton Folding Box Company and retired after 27 years of service. After retirement, he relocated to his childhood hometown of Ozark, Alabama and became a member of First Missionary Baptist Church in Ozark, where he sang with the Senior Choir and the Male Chorus.

He was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Snowdie Mae; his father, Sammie Lee; 2 brothers, L.B. Flowers and Sandy Lee Flowers; 3 sisters, Lilly Mae Mosely, Beatrice Hardwick, and Eva Crittenden; 1 grandson, Thomas Hayman; 1 granddaughter, Tamioka Smith; and a daughter-in-law, Rosalind Flowers.

Bro. Namon leaves to cherish in his faithful and loving memory his beloved wife of 48 years, Minnie Flowers, whom with he had one son, Raymond Lee Flowers; 3 step-daughters, Sarah Lynn Harding, Wanda Johnson, Marcia (Robert) Filer; a grandson, who he adopted as a son, Diamond Flowers.

He is the father of 5 children with his former wife of 13 years, Sis. Elizabeth Lammons of Mooresville, North Carolina; Namon Flowers, Jr., James (Jewels) Flowers, Charlotte (Larry) Flowers-Weston, Linda (Donnie) Bryd, Lisa (Kim) Bellamy; 1 sister, Ann Stewart; 24 grandchildren, 37 great-grandchildren, 7 great-great grandchildren; a very close cousin, W.A. Flowers; several special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who he absolutely adored.

May his strength, determination, compassion and unconditional love for family and friends continue to be revealed through the generations that bare from his roots and may the peace that surpasses all understanding continue to keep them in the comfort of God’s Grace and Mercy.
