Obituary

Cynthia Ann Hallford was born March 8, 1958 to her parents, Willie Mac McDaniel, Sr. and Essie Mae McDaniel, in Ozark, Alabama. She accepted Christ as her Lord and savior at a young age and was a member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Ozark, Alabama. She attended and graduated Carroll High School in 1976. After graduating from Carroll High School, she would later move to Rochester, New York. She spent many years working as a sewing machine operator in Rochester for Joshi Industries.

Cynthia was preceded in death by her mother, Essie Mae McDaniel; father, Willie Mac McDaniel, Sr.; sister, Edna McDaniel; and brother, Willie Mac McDaniel, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memories her children, Tara (Jerry), Billy Jr., Renada (Keith), and Calvin Hall; four sisters, Helen Newsome, Mattie McDaniel, Linda McCallister, and Iris Wynn; and one brother, Eddie Joe McDaniel. She also leaves 12 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, her special life partner, Diosado Despaigne, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Cynthia will always be remembered for her fun and loving personality, her giving heart, and, most importantly, her love for her family.

We, the family of Cynthia Hallford, extend our heartfelt appreciation for the enormous outpouring of love, prayers, sympathy, and support shown to us during our time of bereavement.
