

"My Dearest Brother"

When I think about my brother, Wayne,
I do not get sad, I'm happy because what a way to go into the arms of Jesus right before Sunrise Sunday.

I know today's trouble of the world is no more...
While we have time and blood running through our veins let's get our house in order.

Do not be conformed to this world but renew our minds by living how God want us to live.
Let us remember the struggles that we have gone through and those that still exists.
