"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

In Gratitude

We, the family of Mark Glymph, would like to thank everyone for your kind expressions of love during this time of bereavement. We thank God for each of you. May his love and peace abide with you always. We are forever grateful.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Mr. Mark Anthony Glymph

Mark Anthony Glymph was born on April 16, 1974 in Newberry County to Barbara Wheeler and George Wheeler. He entered into eternal rest on Thursday, April 6, 2023. He attended Newberry High School and Piedmont Technical College. He was employed with Georgia Pacific.

Mark was his mother’s only child, and his father’s oldest child. Mark was known to his family as “Butterball”. Though this was not his favorite nickname it was his family’s favorite because he was butterball baby, was truly the cutest and most adorable. Mark adored his family and loved all, but his first love was his grandmother, the late Fannie Mae Glymph. He was her oldest grandchild and they shared a special bond. His best friend, he referred as his nephew, was “RJ” Glymph. He also shared a special relationship with his great Aunt, the late Ruth Sims. A few of his favorites were watching boxing, movies, and cheering on favorite team the Miami Hurricanes.

Preceding his death are his maternal grandmother, the late Fannie Mae Glymph and grandfather, Freddie Lee Glymph. Paternal grandparents were James E. and Alice Stephens Wheeler; Great Aunts, Ruth Sims and Estelle Sims Penny, Aunt, Nancy Caldwell, Uncles, John T. Wheeler, James Willie, and Arthur Lee Wheeler.

Family survivors include his mother, Barbara Wheeler, father, George Wheeler, special and devoted Aunt, Brenda Maybin of Newberry, SC; Aunts, Berdie Kelly (Matthew) of Irmo, SC and Betty Wheeler of Columbia, SC and Uncle Macky Wheeler (Barbara) of Prosperity, SC. His siblings are Amanda “Monique” Caldwell, Clifton Gallman, Christopher Williams, McKeve Kinsler, Charlene Sims, Marcus Wheeler, and Hannah Wheeler.

Also, left to cherish their childhood memories while growing up are his cousins who were more like his siblings, Robert (Jameka) Glymph, Alisha Glymph-Pitts, Bryant Glymph, Shaneka (William) Green and Jermaine Sims; friend, Fredrick “Van” Robinson, two best friends, Larry Goodson and Manuel Barcelo and host of nieces, nephews, other cousins, relatives and friends.

Lastly, Mark leaves behind his beloved Terricka “Dannie” Quiller. Dannie was the love of his life, best friend, soulmate and his rock. The love and bond they shared will continue to last forever.
