

I Just Went To Sleep

I was tired of life and all its cares
The many trials and all its snares;
I wanted to be free of life's sorrows
And long looked forward to my home of tomorrow;
So I just went to sleep.

I couldn't get around like I did years ago,
I'm tired of the wheelchair that went so slow;
I didn't care to stay in the bed all the time,
But I wanted to go home with my family so divine;
And I just went to sleep.

Don't weep, don't mourn, don't grieve for me at all.

I've gone to answer my Saviour's call;
Just meet me in the morning in the mid-air
Where we will all live together in that city so fair;
I have just gone to sleep.

I know you will miss me, but my time was out
Longing to see Jesus and the saints shout;
Forever with Jesus, you will meet me there,
We will reign with Christ and the saints everywhere;
I have just gone to sleep.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
