

"Farewell"

I used to sing, I used to shout
'Cause praising the Lord is what it's all about.
I used to laugh, I used to cry,
But now it's time to say goodbye.

No more doctors, hospitals, or medicine to take,
No more pain, sorrow, or decisions to make.
For now I'm in that holy place
Where I can behold Him face to face.

For the battle is over and the victory's won,
Come home my child, thou good and faithful one, well done.

Your tasks down here are finished at last,
Where we can only share memories of the past.

The Lord has called and I must go,
For we'll meet again one day I know.
He's coming back again real soon,
Just get ready, for it may be morning, night or noon.

"The Road Too Rough"

God saw the road was getting rough, the hill was hard to climb.

He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine."

A heart of gold stopped beating,
two shining eyes began their rest

God breaks our hearts to prove, He only takes the best.

To some you will be forgotten, to others part of the past;

But to us who loved and lost you,
your memory will always last.

The Family Acknowledgment

We, the family of Lois Williams, would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to each of you for your expressions of love shown to us during this difficult time. We are grateful for all of you and we pray GOD's continuous blessings upon each of you..
