

"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.

The Family Acknowledgment

We, the family of Cynthia Joyner, wish to express our heartfelt and sincere appreciation for the many beautiful acts of kindness, encouraging words, and prayers that have been extended to us during this difficult time. They will forever be remembered in our hearts.

Celebrating The Life Of

Ms. Cynthia Joyner

Ms. Cynthia Joyner was born May 13, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Willie Ben Joyner and the late Ruby Christine Barrett Joyner. She passed away on Thursday, December 30, 2021 at her home.

Cynthia was full of life and her smile can brighten any room. She enjoyed the simple things in life like cleaning and cooking. She was a baby lover who helped raise several generations of loved ones that came after her. She loved her family like no other and was always willing to lend a helping hand any way she could. She was a music aficionado and can name any song and artist. She had a contagious laugh that will have you burst out laughing with her.

Ms. Joyner was predeceased by a great-niece, Makayla Darling.

Ms. Joyner is survived by a sister, Alexice Kinney (Vincent), brother, Paul Joyner, niece, Mahogany Darling (Robert Whitmore), nephew, Mekel Darling (Naquantia), great-niece, Iviana Pitt, great-nephew, Rashard Pitt, a host of cousins and friends.
