When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too.
But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand
That Jesus came and called my name
And took me by the hand
And said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Obituary

Through which each must go alone
And there, in light, we cannot see,
Our Father claims, His own.*

Beyond the gate, your loved one finds happiness and rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best!”

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, “I’m leaving.”
You never said, “Good-bye.”
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times we needed you;
A million times we cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, we loved you dearly;
In death, we love you still.
In our hearts, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn’t go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.*
