

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright.
There is perfect joy and beauty,
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed,
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly;
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined;
Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me,
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth,
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Obituary

Through which each must go alone
And there, in light, we cannot see,
Our Father claims, His own.*

rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best!”*

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, “I’m leaving.”
You never said, “Good-bye.”
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times we needed you,
A million times we cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, we loved you dearly;
In death, we love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn’t go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.*
