

Poem

DON'T CRY FOR ME

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me. It was just my time,
but I will see you someday on the other side.

Don't cry for me. I am not alone.
The angels are with me to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me. This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

Obituary

Ms. Mildred Lynn Thomas age 64, was born in Beaver Falls, PA on August 30, 1958, to the late James and. Annie Thomas.

Mildred received her education at Beaver Falls High School in Beaver Falls, PA. She worked at SRS from 1987 to 1989.

She was not affiliated with any church, but she knew the Lord as her Savior.

Mildred was affectionately called “Milly T.” and “Monkey” by those who loved her. She will be remembered for the love she had for her family and friends, and she will be missed by all those who knew and loved her.

On Tuesday, January 24, 2023, Our Heavenly Father called her from labor to reward at Pruitt Health in Barnwell, SC.

Mildred leaves to cherish her beautiful memory, four sisters, Margie T. (Marshall) Banks, and JoAnn T. Young of Barnwell, SC, Frances Clemmons of Harrisburg, PA, and Carolyn T. (Jeff) Kloos of Beaver Falls, PA; three brothers, Henry (Shirley) Jackson of Beaver Falls, PA, Robert Thomas of Harrisburg, PA, and Paul Thomas of Atlanta, GA; a devoted niece and caregiver, Marlo A. (Eric) Kirkland of Barnwell, SC, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and sympathizing friends.

Through which each must go alone
And there, in light, we cannot see,
Our Father claims, His own.

Beyond the gate, your loved one finds happiness and rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best!”
