Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little--but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
miss me--but let me go.*

Obituary

John Edward Lott was born on March 8, 1970 in South Bend, Indiana. He was the son of John Edward Lott, Jr. and Kathy J. Esters Lott. He, with his family, relocated to Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1972.

John received his education in the Indianapolis Public School System. He attended Schools #83, #107 and #108, and he graduated from Northwest High School.

John loved NFL and college football, and all levels of basketball, from high school to the NBA. He also enjoyed playing video games and watching movies.

In 1992, John married Christine Milirons. This union ended in divorce in 1998.

John departed this life on December 16, 2021, at the age of fifty-one years nine months and nine days.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved mother, Kathy J. Esters Lott; father, John Edward Lott, Jr.; uncles, Dennis Rickman, Charles Esters, Steve Lott, William Lott and Danny Lott; aunts, Jacqueline Smith, Patricia Slater, Judith Welch-Smith, and Etta Palmer, and a host of cousins, friends, co-workers, and neighbors.

The Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down In green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
