Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.*

Obituary

Olivia Fzell Haynes was born on September 16, 1974 to her parents, Ronald and Katherine Haynes. Libby, Lib, or simply O as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was raised in Gary and East Chicago, Indiana where she attended Roosevelt and Central High School. Olivia loved playing in the marching band. Music, especially gospel music, was her passion. She eventually graduated from Ben Davis Adult Education in Indianapolis, IN with her G.E.D. She later went to cosmetology school.

Olivia worked at a myriad of places. She enjoyed working at Ace Mortgage where she was an invaluable part of the team. She worked long hours at Stericycle as a team lead. Her final days were spent working at Kroger as a frontline supervisor. Her co-workers began to rely on her because of her exceptional ability to juggle several things.

Her greatest work took place at Church. She loved her Destiny Center family and was affectionately called “TeTe” by all the children. She had a gift from God to nurture, comfort and calm babies. Every baby that was born in the ministry was given a nickname like peach, apple, pumpkin etc. She understood that family is not just the people you are born into but all the people you choose.

Olivia is survived by her brother Ronald Haynes, sister Tamika (Terry) Sparks, nephews Terrell (Stephanie) Sparks, Brandon (Sydney) Sparks, nieces Taylor Sparks and Tiana Sparks. Aunt Patricia (Paul) Kauffman, Uncle Frank (Faye) Borom, cousins Shirley (Eli) Washington, Ardis Johnson family Robert (Heather) McKinney Victoria, Joshua, Jordan, Daniel (Shan) Webster, Dominique (Sabra) Wilson, Jarvis (Tierra) Jones, Johnson Simon, Kourtney Sterling, Aja Watkins and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, and friends.

TeTe, we love you and will see you soon!
