Acknowledgements

The Lockhart family would like to graciously extend a heartfelt "thank you" for the many thoughts, prayers, phone calls, acts of kindness, cards, beautiful flowers, food, and love offerings that have been bestowed onto us. A special thank you to the medical staff and Dr. Farag of the I.U. Simon Cancer Center's Blood and Bone Marrow Stem Cell Transplant Unit. We pray that God will continue to bless you and your families.

Obituary

Deborah "Debbie" Ann Baskin Lockhart was born

August 23, 1952, to the late Mary Adell Benson Baskin and Lee McDaniel Baskin in Tuskegee, Alabama. She was the only child born to this union. Up until the age of 8 years, she was raised by her maternal grandmother Mamie Benson in Tuskegee, Alabama.

She then moved to Kokomo, Indiana with her father and stepmother, Jean Baskin, and graduated from Kokomo High School in June 1970. Debbie attended St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing, however, later she decided nursing was not for her. She chose to continue her career in the medical field as a medical records coder when she moved to Indianapolis, Indiana in June 1978.

In June of 1980, Debbie met Ray "Fatback" Lockhart by complimenting him on his flashy Corvette and the two were inseparable from that point on. Those remarkable moments led to their union that lasted over 40 years until he preceded her in death in March of 2020. They married in March of 1981 and had their one and only devoted daughter, Lianne, in June of 1982.

Debbie continued her career in the medical coding profession up until her retirement in July of 2014. In April of 2018, Debbie was diagnosed with a rare form of Leukemia, but that did not slow her down. She continued to enjoy reading, crocheting, watching reality T.V., shopping and spending time with family and friends.

Debbie gained her wings on April 27, 2022, when she was reunited with her husband.

Debbie leaves behind her daughter, Lianne of Indianapolis, Indiana; one sister, Harriett Richardson of Kokomo, Indiana; two brothers, Haynes Foster of Kokomo, Indiana and Jay Tindal of Kansas City, Missouri; three sisters-in-law, Carol Boyd of Indianapolis, Indiana, Loretta Lockhart of Chicago, Illinois, and Annetta Winstead of Indianapolis, Indiana; brothers-in-law, Derry Lockhart of Tempe, Arizona and Frank Lockhart, Jr. of Indianapolis, Indiana; one God-daughter, Marisa Cooper of Kokomo, Indiana; long-time friends, Elaine Cannon, Celestine Johnson, and Marla Wickens; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Humbly Submitted..... The Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

A Mother's Love Is A Special Love

A Mother's love is special,
A gift beyond compare;
You only know the meaning
When she is no longer there.

Along the road of suffering
You found a little lane
That took you straight to heaven
And ended all your pain.

Deep in my heart your memory is kept
To love, to cherish and never forget;
In heaven you rest, no worries, no pain,
In God's own time, we will meet again.

A silent thought, a silent tear,
Always wishing you were here;
Life goes on, I know that's true,
But it's not been the same since losing you.

May the God of love and Mercy
Care for my loved one who is gone
And bless with consolation
Those left to carry on.
