

The Moment That You Left Me

*The moment that you left me, my heart split in two. One side filled with memories,
The other side died with you.*

I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek.

Remembering you is easy. I do it every day, but missing you is a heartache that never goes away.

I hold you tightly within my heart, and there you will remain. You see, life has gone on without you, but will never be the same.

Obituary

Trenda E Haywood, a.k.a. Lady T was born on September 22 1963, in St. Louis Missouri to Lorice Davis and John Davis.

Trenda graduated from high school with honors and went on to pursue a Nursing Degree. Trenda became a Registered Nurse and an Entrepreneur, starting own nursing business.

To know Lady T was to love her. She was the life of the party. Trenda loved the finest things in life and if she threw a party she'd always go out with a bang. She helped everyone. Her heart was so big and her love was bigger. We all knew if you needed her she would be there no questions asked.

Trenda leaves behind to cherish her memory her beautiful children, Kamisha Morse, Lester Steele III, Tinesha Steele, and Shaniesha Steele; four loving grandchildren; four caring sisters and two brothers; and a host of other relatives and friends. Trenda will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Psalm 23:4
