My Dearest Family

Some things I'd like to say, but first of all,
To let you know that I've arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven, where I dwell with God above.
There's no more tears or sadness, there's just eternal love.
That day I had to leave you when my life on Earth was through.
God picked me up and hugged me and he said, "I welcome you,
It's good to have you back again, you were missed while you were gone.
As for your dearest family, they will be here later on."
I wish that I could tell you all what God has planned,
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
There are rocky roads ahead for you. And many hills to climb,
But together we can do it, taking one day at a time.
So don't be afraid to cry, it does relieve the pain.
Remember, there would be no flowers if it wasn't for the rain.
And when it's time for you to go from that body to be free,
Remember you're not going; you're coming here to me.

*Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father
after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all enemies under his feet.
The last enemy to be destroyed is death.
1 Corinthians 15: 24-26*
