Until We Meet Again

*Even in the darkest days
Since we've been apart,
Memories of the times we shared
Help to warm my heart.*

*Every day I miss that smile
That no one can replace,
But still it brings me comfort
In the sadness that I face.*

*Life is full of mysteries
That no one can explain,
But I know someday, somewhere
We will meet again.*

*Until we do, I'll find the strength
To live through each new day,
Grateful for the happy years
Before you went away.*

Obituary

Frank Campbell was born in Ripley, Tennessee on March 14, 1944, to his parents, the late Frank and Lenora Campbell-Day. Frank received his education in Ripley, Tennessee and later moved to Indianapolis.

Frank was employed at Schuckman Metal for over 25 years and went on to work for Castle Scrap Yard.

Frank enjoyed fishing and hunting. He loved being around family and friends, barbecues and listening to music. He loved to laugh and talk about old times. You always knew when Frank was in the room because he was loud, just like all of this brothers

Frank departed this life on August 5, 2022, at the age of 78 years old. He was preceded in death by his father, Frank Campbell and his mother, Lenora Campbell-Day; sister Lela Robinson; brothers, James, Charlie, and David Campbell.

He leaves to cherish his memory his brother, Lorenzo Campbell (Felicia); sisters, Teresa Person, and Geraldine Mayberry; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

To my niece that was with him everyday to help watch over him. Thank you family for looking after him, Patricia Campbell.

*We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body,
and to be present with the Lord.
II Corinthians 5:8*
