SONG.....SEE YOURSELF WHEN ALL IS NEW, #139

Even greater than her love of cooking was her love for talking about the Bible. If you had a conversation with her, you knew she would speak about God or share a scriptural thought. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses August 12, 1968. She loved going from door-to-door meeting people and sharing the Bible. In later years, as her mobility changed, people began coming to her house for her enthusiastic Bible studies.

Ramona was a mentor, a friend, a confidant and a 'second mother' to others. She willingly shared her love and passed along her pearls of wisdom. She was a talented poet, very artistic and an eager and avid learner. In her mid-70s, she took lessons at one of the Spanish-speaking Kingdom Halls. In her 80s she learned to text (never quite grasping the concept of a short messaging system, which tickled those on the receiving end).

Ramona was preceded in death by her husband Earl N. Jones. She will be lovingly remembered by her children: Robert Martin III (Maxine), Peggy Caldwell (Dana), Glenda Carter (John), Andrea Smith (Wayne), Charles Ferguson Sr. (Jimmie), Della Poston, Marcia Graggs (Jeff), James Gillenwater Jr.

Grandchildren: Sherrece, Stachia, Dontaye, Ayana, Aunya, Natannya, Desiree, Danielle, DeAundra, Charlyce, Charles Jr., Charla, Charlynn, Nijah, Nathan, Eric, Kimberly, Darryl, Anjel, Jevne, Jeffrey II, Jesni and a host of great grandchildren, great, great grandchildren, family and friends.
