*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
I would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why
My heart still aches with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know
But now I know you want me
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
I pledge to you today
A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay
Love, Mom and Dad*

Brief Sketch of Life

Ricky Tyrone was born March 16, 1992 to the union of Ricky Tyrone Newton Sr. and Myrtle Marie (Williams) Newton in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Ricky attended Indianapolis Public School #87 during his elementary years. He later went to Crispus Attucks Magnet School before attending Fishers High School. During Ricky's high school years, he received Statewide recognition for his bowling skill. He was one of the top bowlers in Indiana during this time. He obtained his first perfect score of 300 ring. He worked at BP, Merit Logistics and SAIA LTL Freight before becoming self-employed as a ride share provider.

Ricky accepted Christ at an early age at Greater Guiding Light Missionary Baptist Church where he played the bass guitar for the male chorus.

"Little Ricky" or AKA "Pretty Ricky", as called by some friends and family, had a set of four year old twin boys. Their names are Ricky III and Rylin Newton. He loved these boys dearly. Ricky had a great love for children, music, gardening and cooking.

Ricky leaves to cherish his memory his sons, Ricky Newton III and Rylin Newton; father, Ricky Newton Sr. (Pangie); mother, Myrtle Rose (James); grandmother, Leola Williams; grandfather, Suglet Miller (Charlotte); siblings: brothers, Terrell and Robert Newton; stepbrother Deontra Johnson; god brother, Jeffery Twitty; sisters, Neschelle, Terry and Chloe Newton; stepsister, Jazmin Rose-Mumphrey (Chad); a special friend and mother of his sons, Linda Hughes; two stepdaughters, Jazalin and Brooklyn Parker; and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, family and friends, who will miss him dearly.

He was preceded in death by grandparents, Thomas Williams, Arma Miller-Rabb.

DAD

I thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.
I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories; and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake,
with which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
I have you in my heart.
Love you always Daddy,
Ricky III and Rylin
