

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Chontavia Deltrice Strong was a woman of indecipherable beauty. God graciously gifted her to her parents, Cheryl Williams Shelton, and Delton Shelton, on October 16, 1976. From that day forward, she never ceased to amaze us with her many gifts and talents.

Chontavia was primarily active from a young age. While attending Chiefland High School, Chontavia played her favorite sports, such as track and field and basketball. Shortly after graduating high school, she served two terms in the U.S. Army. After serving our country, Chontavia dedicated her life to serving her people. While most of her serving came from being an ordained prophetess as she served her church family, she was also an incredibly loving wife to Jamie William Strong, Sr. She was a sister to Broddrick DeShon Mongo, Hamp Ramon-José Cheevers, Nikima Jones, Minique Daughrity, Shameka Wyatt, and Leslie Bush; an aunt to her beautiful nieces and nephews, and a grandmother to her grandchildren whom she would stop the world for. Lastly, Chontavia was the world's greatest mother to her five gorgeous children: Skyler, Jaidyn, Jordan, Jamie, and Jodiah. She also leaves to cherish a host of uncles, aunts, great-aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowful friends.

To match her heartwarming inner and outer beauty, Chontavia also had brains. She was a prodigiously smart woman. Chontavia attained two degrees, one in business administration and the other in accounting. She was a CPA and business owner to Urise Financial Group LLC, where God used her to help and change the lives of all she encountered.

Chontavia LOVED to take trips/travel and be surrounded by her family and friends. One of her favorite things after a stressful day was going around one of her aunts or uncles and recording them and laughing. You could also find her infectiously laughing with one of her best friends. Chontavia was also known as a giver, a blanket of comfort, and a shoulder to cry on for so many.

As Chontavia returns to the arms of her Heavenly Father, she leaves behind many families and friends that she cared for deeply. As we relinquish Chontavia to Jesus, we will forever remember and cherish the precious moments that each of us had with her. Embedded in our hearts, she will live on.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We lost a wonderful daughter, mother, grandmother, niece, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend, who can never be replaced. During these days and weeks, following her passing, we have been blessed with the loving embrace of our family, friends, and community. It is during these difficult times that we see how lucky we are to have been blessed with a loving family, friends, and a wonderful community. Thank you very much for all your love shown.

Whatever the part you may have done, it was greatly appreciated.
