MY LAST PARTY

When you come to my last party, don't come with faces long,
But come with memories that are pleasant,

In your heart, let there be a song.

The place will be full of flowers, and I will be dressed grand.
The only thing I shall be sorry for, I will not be able to shake your hand. When you come to my last party, I don't know yet how soon it will be, The daily papers will print the invitations that everyone might see.

I am going to hold it in a chapel, and no one will be turned away. When you come to my last party, we won't play games, But there will be a register where you can sign your name
As you stand here and sing my praises in voices so silently Telling each other or thinking of what good things you know about me. When you come to my last party, my Lord will be your host,

Because 'tis He among all my friends who really loves me most. He bore my cross at Calvary, He bears my cross today; When you leave, He will still be with me to comfort me on my way. When you come to my last party, in spirit I'll be there,

And as you stare at me, right back,
Through closed eyes, at you I'll stare.

And when you say that I look natural, that is as it should be Because at my last party who should look more natural than me?

I did the best that I knew how, It's up to God to take care of me now.
