

Letter to Nana from Christina Williams

To Nana,

I just want to say I love you so much and miss you. It was so unexpected that you left us but God is protecting you and you are watching over all of us. I never got a chance to tell you what I really wanted to say to you before you left. I'm Glad I was able to be there with you before you left us. I think about you every day. You will forever be in my heart no matter what. I miss all the crazy conversations we had and all the places you like to go. I'm going to miss smelling your coffee in the morning, and miss your laugh. You were a sweet lady and you always took up for me. It was so hard for me to see you go so early. I will make you proud and have you smiling in haven. I love you nana, more than you will ever know.

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years. But start out bravely with a smile and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days but feel each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near, and never be afraid to die, for I am waiting in the sky

THE OBITUARY

Sheila Faye Carroll was born June 10, 1957 in Durham, North Carolina to the late parents of John C. Hill and Martha Hill. She peacefully departed this life on Tuesday, April 18, 2023 in Durham, North Carolina.

She was known for her beautiful smile her sweet, kind personality and her crazy conversations and stories. Also, as a loving mother and grandmother. She has touched many hearts with her kindness and love for life. To know her is to know the love she had for her family and her dogs. There is only one thing in life that is totally all ours to keep and that is our memories and she left her family and friends with plenty of good ones, especially on her advice of life and life lessons.

Her legacy lives on in her son; David Carroll her daughters; Angela Carroll, Crystal Wilkins, April Wilkins (Michelle), Malissa Wilkins, Carla Wilkins, Amanda Sherman; 18 Grandkids; Angel Williams, Christina Williams, Jefferey Carroll, Aaliyah Hodge, Bryanna Bumpass, Telvin Lofton Jr, Madison Jones, King-Arthur Jones, Kenneth Charles Jr (lil man), Leonna Charles, Kayden Vaughan, Katie Abbott, Austin Abbott, Ivis Gevawer (Shayanne), and her great grandson; Carson Perry, and many family and friends. You will surely be missed by everyone who knew her.

Memory Poem for Grandma

For all the times you gently picked me up, when I fell down,
For all the times you tied my shoes and tucked me into bed,
Or needed something but put me first instead.
for everything we shared, the dreams, the laughter, and the tears, I love you with a special love
That deepens every year. Thank you, grandma,
