

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Acknowledgement

The family of Mrs. Evelyn Alexander Booker would like to thank you all for the outpouring of love and support you showed us during this difficult time.
May God continue to bless and keep you all.

What You Leave Behind

I touched upon an old handkerchief
That sent my mind to better days
The scent of perfume was held within
As the image of you left me crazed
Alive you were again standing before me
That smile only you possessed, held me dear
It was as if you had never left me
Still standing close, so very near
Each time I hold something you left me
So many things then come to mind
But I only see the positive, the beauty
For that is what you left behind...
Memories left for me to find
