Proverbs 31:10-31

The Virtuous Woman: good, righteous, worthy, honorable, moral upright, honest

Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her,
so that he shall have no need of spoil.
She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
She riseth also while it is yet night,
and giveth meat to her household
And a portion to her maidens.
She considereth a field, and buyeth it:
With the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
She girdeth her lions with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
She perceiveth that her merchandise is good:
her candle goeth not out by night.
She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hand to the poor;
Yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
She is not afraid of the snow for her household:
For all her household are clothed with scarlet.
She maketh herself coverings of tapestry;
her clothing is silk and purple.
Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sitteth among the elders of the land.
She maketh fine linen, and selleth it;
And delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
Strength and honour are her clothing;
And she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
And in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household,
And eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praiseth her.
Many daughters have done virtuously,
But thou excellest them all.
Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain:
But a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.
Give her of the fruit of her hands;
And let her own works praise her in the gates.

REFLECTION OF LIFE

Out of all the years on the battlefield – God has never failed. No, God did not fail her at the end, He simply called her home to rest and reward.

VIVIAN DEBORAH TUCKER began her journey on May 29, 1953, as one of three children born to the late Deacon Nathan Mason and Frances Green Mason. She was the granddaughter of the late Reverend Charlie and Fannie Major Green. Vivian was married to the late Reverend Joseph L. Tucker. To this union two children were born, one of whom, her son, Joseph Damian Tucker preceded her in death.

Vivian was a humble, obedient, and loving woman who served the Lord with gladness. She began her Christian Journey at an early age joining Jericho Baptist Church where she served faithfully in many capacities. Her walk with God continued as she assisted her husband to fulfill God’s calling by serving as First Lady at the various churches he pastored and traveled with him serving the Baptist Church at the local, state and national levels. Vivian was an accomplished dynamic, and sought-after public speaker in her own right and was often the featured speaker at annual Women’s Day functions.

Vivian was educated in Dorchester County and a member of Williams Memorial High Class of 1969. She received her degree in Business Administration from Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College. Her employment history includes 29 years of distinguished service at AT&T from which she retired. She then joined Belk of Orangeburg where she quickly became a valued team member as well as a customer favorite. Everywhere she went in Orangeburg, she was asked when she would be returning to Belk.

The Fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and self-control – all were evident in Vivian.

Those left to cherish her memory include: Ms. Lashaun L. Tucker of Orangeburg, SC; her mother, Mrs. Frances G. Mason of Branchville, SC; two brothers, Mr. Claude (Sherry) Mason of Rolesville, NC and Mr. Stephen (Freddie Mae) Mason of Orangeburg, SC; two aunts, Mrs. Carrie Gule of Dorchester, SC and Mrs. Onell Green of St. George, SC; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Joanne Preston of Brooklyn, NY; two brothers-in law, Mr. Kenneth Tucker and Mr. Michael Tucker, both of St. George, SC; her nieces and nephews – Garrick, Bettina (Raphael), Quentin, David, Zachary, Eric, Tari (Mr. Watson), Leonore, April, Michael Jr., Jermaine, Lafieta (Mr. Taylor), Jerzee, Micah, Jayden, Tobey, Nicholas, Tari’s son, Lafieta’s four kids; and a host of other relatives and friends including Mrs. Mary Johnson and Minister Addie Frederick who were like sisters to her.
