

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand, I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace ... at close of day
And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savored much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wants me now ... He set me free.

The Obituary of Jeremiah Jamison, Sr.

Jeremiah Jamison, Sr., affectionately known as "JJ or Jerry", was born on August 16, 1932 to Mrs. Minnie Green. He was raised in the home of his aunt and uncle, Beatrice and Lonnie Seabrook. Jerry departed this life while residing at Pruitt Health—Orangeburg on Sunday, January 26, 2020.

Jerry accepted Christ at an early age at Central United Methodist Church in Rowesville, South Carolina where he served as a faithful lay leader, taught Sunday School, and sung in the choir.

Jerry was educated in the public-school system of Orangeburg and graduated from Wilkinson High School. Shortly after graduating from high school, he served in the United States Air Force. After his honorable discharge from the Air Force, Jerry was employed at the local Hygrade plant for many years. His thirst for knowledge and learning led him to acquire his CDL, life insurance, and DJ/broadcaster licenses. To acquire computer skills, he attended classes at the local technical college and high school.

Jerry's work history also included Pilgrim Life Insurance, Life of Georgia Insurance, Crestlawn/Belleville Memorial Gardens, and Glover's Funeral Home. He also worked as a charter bus driver and long-haul truck driver.

As a young man Jerry loved singing and was a member of a gospel quartet group. He later used his love for music and worked as a DJ/broadcaster for WQKI and WPJK Radio stations. Jerry enjoyed his many employment opportunities but still felt something was missing and channeled his knowledge and work experiences into entrepreneurial businesses such as Jays Record Store, Jeremiah Jamison Insurance Agency and Jays Chartering Bus Service.

Jerry loved his Rowesville community and served on the local City Council and as Mayor Pro Tem. As a pastime, he enjoyed working in his garden.

Jerry leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 38 years, Dorothy S. Jamison; seven children: Jeremiah Jamison, Jr., Virgil Mark Jamison, Anna Teresa Jamison, Cecil Fitzgerald Jamison, Dianne S. (James) Campbell, Marcie S. McDaniel, Matthew Sanders; 16 grandchildren; 30 great grandchildren (Joshua Thomas raised in the home), and a host of family members and friends .
