

DON'T

*Don't spend too much time in mourning; tears are for the sad.
I left to be with Jesus and this should make you glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving; no need to feel distress.
I'm tired of life's frustrations and had to take some rest.
Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why.
Life here for me has ended. It came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you; feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way,
We'll have another meeting on God's Eternal Day.*

REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Mrs. Joyce Ann Berry Riley, daughter of the late Mrs. Ruth Williams Berry and Mr. Eugene L. Berry, was born March 17, 1946 in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. Mrs. Riley was married to the late Johnny Lee Riley. She departed this life March 10, 2020 at the Regional Medical Center, Orangeburg, South Carolina following a brief illness.

Mrs. Riley graduated from the Bowman School System. She furthered her education at South Carolina State University where she received her Master's in English. She also became a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Mrs. Riley was employed for 30 years at Orangeburg County School District 5 as a Media Specialist.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene and Ruth Berry, her husband Johnny Riley and sister, Gladys Berry.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving and devoted son, Marvin Riley of the home; two grandsons, Jalen Riley and Dashawn Riley of the home, a host of nieces, nephews, very special cousins and dear friends.
