TO MY LOVED ONES...

Weep not for me though I am gone into that gentle night.

Grieve if you will, but not for long

Upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace, my soul's at rest

There is no need for tears.

For with your love I was so blessed.

For all those many years.

There is no pain, I suffer not,

The fear now all is gone.

Put now these things out of your thoughts,

In your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath

Remember not the strife.

Please do not swell upon my death,

But celebrate my life.

REFLECTION OF LIFE

Mr. Joe Louis Coppedge, son of the late Joe Lewis Coppage and Dollie Mae Coppage, was born in Littleton, North Carolina on January 10, 1939. He completed this earthly journey on May 12, 2020 at the Oaks Nursing Home Facility under Edisto Acute Hospice Care in Orangeburg, South Carolina after an extended illness.

Joe graduated from the public school system of Halifax County in North Carolina. Joe met and married the late Eartha Lee Coppedge and to this union one child was born. Joe drove long distance truck for many years in both New York and New Jersey. Joe attended Paradise Baptist Church in Newark, New Jersey under the leadership of Bishop Jethro C. James. He later moved back to his hometown in Littleton, North Carolina where he attended Evangelist Church of Deliverance. Joe had a great passion for baseball, music, sitting outside enjoying nature, fashion aka "Dressing Joe" and he loved sweet potato pie. No soul who was privileged to know him will never forget his strong personality.

Joe was preceded in death by four sisters, Pattie Coppage Young, Helen Coppage Young, Emma Coppage Bachelor. Doretha Coppage Webster and one brother Walter Coppage.

Joe leaves to cherish his loving memories, one daughter Kisha Coppedge of Orangeburg, SC; two sons Arnold (Theresa) Coker of Manhattan, NY and Kyle (Chyrese) Smith of Baltimore, MD; three sisters Angie Coppage Owens of Middleton, DE, Jean Coppage Daniels of Norfolk, VA Beach; three sisters-in-law, Maggie Wiggins of Columbia, SC, Eartha Idella Eisom of Branchville, SC and Nettie Wiggins of Kissimmee, FL; one brother-in-law, Frank (Mary) Moody of Denmark, SC; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; special niece Jannetta (Charles) Russell of Queens, NY; special nephew Ernie (Dawn) Owens of Middletown, DE; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
