

Wonderful Woman

*A jewel of a woman, kind, loyal and true...
A passion for children; yours, theirs and ours too.
No amethyst, Diamond, Ruby nor a Pearl
Can compare to such a woman, I sometimes called "little girl"
She read God's word at an early age, she said,
after happily making up her grandmother's bed.
Recognized on her job for helping kids in need,
The "Nice Lunch Lady" was always sowing a seed.
Out of the cold and into a warm place,
She wiped little noses and lotion their faces.
After mommy loved them and fed their tummies
No signs of a cold or hunger, no traces...
Why bother? Some mumbled, and many would ask,
I too, have grands, this is an easy task,
Always practicing one Golden Rule,
"Do unto others," mom was so concerned...
Ushering babies to class with a full tummy
Yes now they can learn.
Sending up prayers for her own she once said,
"I pray someone would bless my grand son day...
A heroin she was, saving lives from a fire,
My God! What a woman to love and admire...
To my family, let us love and not be sad,
We had the very best, the very best mom and dad.
To my nieces and nephews, if ever you wonder why or how you got by...
It's because of Granny's prayers,
now gone to be with Poppa in the sky,
God gave them to us for a special reason,
life and death are both a season.
Grandma Mena, Dad, Camden, Sr., Donald Ray,
Nellie and Auntie Ruby
Please welcome her home, this is another quiet storm
Let us rejoice, her love was oh so powerful
Remember her as the woman whose Wonderful.
God knows she gave her very best!
Sleep now Momma, We all must past the same test.*
