

Mother you left us beautiful memories,
 Your Love is still our guide,
 Although we cannot see you,
 Your always at our side.
 Those we Love don't go away
 They walk beside us every day,
 Unseen or unheard, but always near
 Still Loved, still missed and very dear.
 A mother's Love is always with her children
 Losing a mother is one of the Deepest sorrows a heart can know.
 But her goodness, her caring and
 Her wisdom lives on like a
 Legacy of Love
 That will always be with you.
 May that Love surround you now
 and bring you peace!
 Loving you Always
 Barbara, Neressie and Tyrone

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took his hand when I heard his call,
 I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My Life's been full, I savoured much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Celebrating the Life and Reflections of Gladys Mae Williams Harrison

Mrs. Gladys Mae Williams Harrison was born July 4, 1941 in Durham North Carolina, to the late Gladys Williams. She was raised by the late Nora McMichael from the age of three years old.

Gladys was educated in the Northfield School System in Norway, SC. She attended Nursing School in Miami, Florida where she resided for several years before returning to SC.

She joined Canaan United Methodist Church at an early age where she was the President of the Usher Board and the United Methodist Women's Group. Gladys was also a member of Queen Victoria #2 Order of the Eastern Star of Orangeburg, SC. Later in life she joined Warren Chapel Baptist Church where she was also a member of the Usher Board.

Gladys worked at Orangeburg Garment Industrial, Hamricks and St. Matthews Manufactory as a very good presser.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her daughter: Teresa Harrison; granddaughter: Shykimia Holman; brother: John Williams and her adopted mother: Gladys Mack.

Gladys' memories will be cherished especially by her husband Andrew Harrison; two loving daughters: Barbara (Terry) Polite of Orangeburg SC and Neressie (Danny) Davis of Cope SC; one son: Andrew Tyrone Harrison of Orangeburg SC; one sister: Pearl Ester Brown of Miami FL; one brother: John (Javiena) Williams of Chicago IL; five half-brothers: Winfield (Penny) Mack of Stockbridge GA, Bernard Mack of Lilburn GA, John Henry (Josie) of Orangeburg SC, Robert (Bernette) McMichael of Port Orchard WA, and Kenneth Mack of Orangeburg SC; one sister-in-law: Jimmie Lou Harrison of Orangeburg SC; two loving grandchildren of the home: Anthony Nelson and Fantasia Polite; five special grandchildren Danny (Cassie) Davis, Jr. of Rhode Island, Kelvin (Stephanie) Davis of Willington VA, Dominic (Dernasha) Davis of Cope SC, Brittany Hall of Atlanta GA, and Sincere Robbs of Lynchburg, VA and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. She also leaves a dear friend, Ms. Annie Mae Franklin of Orangeburg SC.
