

The Cord

We are connected, My child and I,
 By an invisible cord not seen by the eye.
 It's not like the cord that connects us 'til birth
 This cord can't be seen by any on earth.
 This cord does it's work right from the start.
 It binds us together attached to my heart.
 I know that it's there though no one can see
 The invisible cord from my child to me.
 The strength of this cord is hard to describe.
 It can't be destroyed; it can't be denied.
 It's stronger than any cord man could create
 It withstands the test, can hold any weight.
 And though you are gone,
 Though you're not here with me
 The cord is still here, but no one can see.
 It pulls at my heart, I am bruised, I am sore,
 But this cord is my lifeline as never before.
 I am thankful that God connects us this way
 A mother and child, death can't take it away.

Safely Home

I am home in heaven, Dear one;
 Oh, so happy and so bright;
 There is perfect joy and beauty;
 In this everlasting light.
 All the pain and grief are over
 Every restless tossing passed,
 I am now at peace forever;
 Safely home in Heaven at last.
 There is work still waiting for you
 So, you must not idly stand;
 Do it now while life remaineth
 You shall rest in God's own land.
 When that work is all completed,
 He will gently call you home.
 Oh! The rapture of that meeting,
 Oh, the joy to see you come.

~ Obituary ~

Saturday, July 11, 2020, the Lord decided that it was time for Sintereius (Bamma) Jamal Davis to leave his earthly residence to be with his Heavenly Father.

Sintereius was born July 9, 1999 in York County, SC, the son of Robin E. Hardin-Davis and Trenton Dwayne Culler.

Sintereius was a member of Cornerstone Community Church in Orangeburg, SC. He was a graduate of Edisto High School, class of 2018. He spent four years in the Air Force ROTC program preparing for his career in the US Navy.

He enlisted into the US Navy in 2018. He was stationed in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he was a Damage Control Fireman upon the USS HOPPER (DDG-70). USS HOPPER became his home away from home.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents: Johnny and Margie Washington; maternal great grandmother: Louise Craig; and his paternal great grandmother: Marie Owens.

Sintereius was mannerable and kind. He loved his family and never met a stranger. His love radiated through his actions and was evident by his electric smile. His presence while no longer on this earth will always be in many hearts.

To cherish his memory are his loving parents, Robin E. Hardin-Davis of Orangeburg, SC and Mr. and Mrs. Trenton D. Culler of Pontiac, SC; brothers: Montrel D. (Maria) Chalk of Norfolk, VA, Sheldon C. Davis, Lawrence J. Hardin and Tayquan C. Hardin all of Orangeburg, SC; sisters: Shymaya K. Johnson and Aamarius L. B. Hardin both of Orangeburg, SC; niece: Ania M. Chalk of Orangeburg, SC; stepbrothers: Xavyer White and Malik Stevens of Pontiac, SC and a wealth of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends who will grieve with his family. Sintereius had many friends but few were near and dear to his heart. They are Myeshia Green, Natalie Ortiz, Genesis Castaneda and Meghan Coleman.
