

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me, But Let Me Go!

The Family

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God believe also in me!"

John 14:1

Jesse Odom, 70, was called by God on Thursday, August 6, 2020 at his residence after an extended illness. He was born on July 17, 1950 to the late Jim and Alma Ray Odom in Denmark, SC. He was preceded in death by his sister Ruben Jenkins and his brother Albert Odom, Sr. He was reared and educated in public schools, Voorhees Elementary and High School in Bamberg, County.

He was a dedicated member of the Mount Zion Baptist Church where he once served as a member on the board of trustees.

He was a military service man in the army from November 9, 1970 to August 29, 1991. He also retired from Savannah River Site after 28 years.

Jesse is survived by his loving wife, Willie Dean Robinson Odom of 21 years; three children: Priscilla Washington of Denmark, South Carolina, Phillip (Regina) Prophet of Norway, South Carolina and Kizzy (Davon) Joyner of Blackville, South Carolina; two step-daughters: Vernitta (Willie) Britt of Orangeburg, South Carolina and Chantell (Teddy) Williams of Columbia, South Carolina; one brother: James (Janie) Odom of Denmark, South Carolina; one sister: Rudell Reddish of Denmark, South Carolina; three sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law; fourteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
