

Daddy's Girl

Life has its moments and we laugh, we fuss and we dance but there's a time for everything so there's also a time that we cry. You were suddenly taken away from me and my soul felt as if it died. I don't really have the answers and I can't explain why, but I know u served a God that sits high up in the sky. God had covered you for years and he knew your ups and downs. He moved you from that valley and now you have received your crown. Those beautiful streets of gold and the angels welcoming you in. God smiled the day you received him and gave up your life of sin. I love you daddy and there's no words that can explain it. God made you a king on earth and you definitely walked and claimed it. You held me down from birth and things will never be the same. I'll forever look over my shoulders when I hear your spirit calling my name. I'm hurt, I'm distraught, I'm angry and I'm sad, but I know there's an angel that walks with me now and his name is dad. So farewell daddy we will meet again. I can see our other relatives smiling and waiting as you enter in. I love you and you will always live in my heart. The text, the talks and the fussing that built me up and gave me a new start. I'm standing daddy. It's hard, but I refuse to fall or give up in this cruel world. Tell God to continue to watch over me and the kids.

Then remember, I'm still daddy's girl.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

The Obituary

On Sunday, December 13, 2020, an angel of mercy came down in Buffalo, New York and carried back tow glory the soul of Mr. Lloyd “Unk” Evans.

Lloyd, affectionately known as “Unk” was born in Orangeburg, South Carolina to the late Jeff and Susie Robinson Evans on January 11, 1963.

He was educated in the Orangeburg County Public Schools. As he grew into adulthood, he relocated to Avon Park, Florida in the late 70s early 80s, but later returned to Orangeburg in the early 2000s only to plant his final footprints in Buffalo, NY which he considered to be home.

Lloyd was a humble servant of others who loved to fix cars, BBQ and cook. Being a connoisseur of music, he always kept up with the latest tunes, all while keeping the latest score on his all-time favorite football team the Buffalo Bills.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Carlis Evans and Theodore (Coretta) McRae Evans Sr.

Lloyd leaves to mourn his wife Patsy I. Evans of Sebring, FL; daughter: Casmine C. Evans of Atlanta, GA; three stepchildren: Tina of Tampa, FL, James of Maryland and Timothy of Sebring, FL; six sisters: Mrs. Dorothy Ann (Robert) DeBold, Ms. Annette (Marvin) Bryant and Ms. Jannette (Leroy) Moultrie all of Orangeburg, SC, Ms. Lee Evans of Greenville, SC, Carolyn Evans, of Atlanta, GA, and Ms. Janie Owens, of Bolentown, SC; one brother; Mr. James (Sally) Evans of Orangeburg, SC; three grandchildren: Altedrius M. Evans, Bryanna S. Evans, and Jaden J. Evans all of Atlanta, GA; two aunts: Mrs. Jimmie Lou Polite of Norway, SC and Mrs. Beatrice (Luther) Todd of Buffalo, NY; two uncles: Mr. Charlie Robinson of Charleston, SC and Mr. James Robinson of Philadelphia, PA and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends, and a very special friend Candice A. Stewart.
